

Our Quality

The company's quality management aims to produce a safe and healthy product of high quality and maintain high productivity while reducing the cost of production, This benefits customers and employees and taking top priority to satisfy customers and meet their wishes through:-

- Meeting the needs of customers in terms of the quality and safety of products.
- Working as a team and continuous training for employees in order to ensure the quality of products and reduce non-conforming products.
- Selecting the best suppliers of raw materials and obligation to health requirements and good manufacturing practices
- Product conformity to international standard specifications requirements.
- Commitment to the continuous development of the food safety management system.
- Measure the chemical and physical properties and microbiological analyses of all products according to international standards.
- Oversee for all specification of finished products and packaging component inspections.
- Ensure that production of finished products is in compliance with all company Standard Operating Procedures.
- Achieving customer requirements and desires
- Manage a continuous improvement program to achieve our customer's satisfactions.
- Work to detect the root cause analyses for problems to avoid customers complains.